

CALEN B
Massage balm with marigold

Code: 2701

A balm that provides a high degree of lubrication. Thanks to pot marigold, it may have anti-inflammatory effects. Because of its excellent spreadability and glide, it is suitable for massage. It is particularly good at making the skin soft and supple. Suitable for massage and wherever the soothing and anti-inflammatory properties of pot marigold are needed. It has proved effective in treating poorly healing wounds. It can be successfully used in treating bedsores. It is also suitable for treating nipples when breastfeeding. It has to be warmed up to room temperature before use, otherwise it is very thick, even solid.
